

X
 100/ On the Monday I returned to work from my 10-day suspension, I was summoned to the judge's office along w/ Mary. She informed me that if I didn't want to work there to let her know right then. I was feeling uneasy; almost like it was a threatening situation. I told her that I enjoyed my job & was very good @ it. He then said that I needed to take responsibility for the incident.

In Jan. 2004 while working downstairs, a gentleman came in & asked to speak to Mary Beth Brackin. I informed him that I was she. He stated that he was falsely arrested & needed to know what to do. He had to post bond & his vehicle was towed. I informed him to proceed to the City Clerk's Office & tell them that he was falsely arrested & wanted his money back. Did not hear anything else from that until a couple of months later ordering me to report to the Chief's conf room for another internal investigation.
